

RYDER PARTNERSHIP

Construction Design Management Regulations 2007 Awareness Course..

The course is designed for those who have the responsibility for the management of health and safety on construction sites with particular reference to notifiable projects under the CDM 2007 Regulations. . .

Aims of the course

The aim of the course is to enable delegates to understand the principles and requirements of the CDM Regulations 2007.

Objectives

Delegates will be able to:

Know and understand the requirements of the Regulations.

Understand the roles and duties of the various stakeholders.

Understand the requirements for the Construction Phase Plan and Health and Safety File.

The structure of the course

Reason for updating the CDM Regulations.

The Main Changes.

Definitions and roles of the various stakeholders: Clients, Contractors, Principal Contractors, CDM Coordinator.

Design Risk assessment

Construction Phase Plan

Competencies.

Cooperation and coordination between duty holders.

Contents of the Health and Safety File.

Safe Places of Work.

Number of Delegates

This course is suitable for up to a maximum of 12 delegates.

Who should attend

Any person with a management responsibility on construction sites..

Certification

All delegates will receive a certificate of attendance.

Course Duration Half day duration