

RYDER PARTNERSHIP

Risk Assessment Principles and Practice.

The course is aimed at managers and other personnel in the workplace who need to understand the principles of risk assessment and their practical application.

Aims of the course

The aim of the course is to enable delegates to understand the principles of risk assessment and be able to carry out assessments in their own workplace whilst at the same time understanding the legal background and requirements of risk assessment.

Objectives

The course covers the following aspects of Risk Assessment

- The principles of Risk Assessment
- Essential definitions
- Risk assessment in Practice
- Carrying out risk assessments
- Legal Requirements of Risk Assessment

The structure of the course

Principles of Risk Assessment

- Concept of risk assessment
- Work related injury and ill health statistics.
- The Accident Triangle.
- Understanding the principles.
- The risk assessment process
- Risk Rating
- Competence

Risk Assessment in Practice

- The risk assessment process
- Preparing for a risk assessment
- Conducting a risk assessment
- Generic and specialized risk assessments.
- Communication and review.

Legal Requirements for Risk Assessment.

Background.

General legal requirements

Reasonably Practicable.

Specific legal requirements.

Number of Delegates

This course is suitable for up to a maximum of 12 delegates.

Who should attend

Any person responsible for issuing, signing off and using permits to work..

Certification

All delegates will receive a certificate of attendance.

Course Duration Half day duration or One day duration