

RYDER PARTNERSHIP

Health and Safety Committees: Roles and Responsibilities..

The course is aimed at those who are members of Safety Committees or a Safety Representatives within an organisation.

Aims of the course

The aim of the course is to ensure that members of the company Safety Committee and Safety Representatives are aware of their role and the purpose of the Health and Safety Committee . The course aims also aims to furnish delegates with some basic techniques such as hazard spotting, risk assessment and accident investigation. .

Objectives

An effective Health and Safety Committee

Safety Representatives with knowledge of their role and function.

High standards of risk assessment and accident investigation

The structure of the course

Health and safety law overview

The role off the safety rep

The role of the safety committee

Hazard spotting and safety inspections

Process of risk assessment (general)

Safe systems of work

Accident investigation,

The course is designed for a maximum number of twelve delegates.

All delegates are issued with a course attendance certificate.